

International Council On Monuments And Sites

ICOMOS New Zealand National Branch

Rules

1. Name and Address

1. A society is hereby established under the name of ICOMOS New Zealand Incorporated referred to as 'The Society'.
2. The official address of the Society shall be at such place as the Executive Board of the Society shall from time to time appoint.

2. Definitions

3. a The term "monument" shall include all structures (together with their pertinent fixtures and contents) which are of value from the historical, artistic, architectural, scientific, social, spiritual or ethnological point of view. This definition shall include works of monumental sculpture and painting, elements or structures of an archaeological nature, inscriptions, cave dwellings and all combinations of such features.
- b. The term "group of buildings" shall include all groups of separate or connected buildings and their surroundings, whether urban or rural, which, because of their architecture, their homogeneity or their place in the landscape, are of value from the historical, artistic, scientific, social, spiritual or ethnological point of view.
- c. The term "site" shall include all topographical areas and landscapes, the works of people or the combined works of nature and of people including historic parks and gardens, which are of value from the historical, artistic, scientific, social, spiritual or ethnological point of view.
- d. The terms "monument", "site", and "group of buildings" shall not include:
 1. museum collections housed in monuments;
 2. archaeological collections preserved in museums or exhibited at archaeological or historic site museums;
 3. open air museums.
- e. The term "ICOMOS Statutes" shall where used in these Rules mean the Statutes adopted by the Fifth General Assembly of ICOMOS on 22 May 1978, together with any statutes which the General Assembly of ICOMOS has from time to time adopted in addition to, or substitution for, those Statutes.
- f. The term "ICOMOS" means the International Council on Monuments and Sites, constituted by the ICOMOS Statutes.

3. Aims and Activities

4. The aim of the Society shall be to further the conservation, protection, rehabilitation and enhancement of historical monuments, groups of buildings and sites, on the national and international levels.
5. At the national level, the Society shall establish and carry out its own programme of activities, in accordance with the aims and activities of ICOMOS. It shall implement the decisions of the ICOMOS General Assembly and the programmes proposed by the Advisory and executive Committees of the Council.
6. Generally the Society shall serve as a forum for discussion and for the exchange of information, nationally and internationally, on matters of principle, and of technical, legal and administrative practice, affecting the conservation, restoration, rehabilitation and enhancement of monuments, sites and groups of buildings.

4. Membership

7. The Society shall comprise members of ICOMOS normally residing within New Zealand, including Individual, Institutional, Honorary members and Affiliates.
8. ICOMOS membership shall be open to any duly qualified individual or institution, in accordance with Article 6 (a) of the ICOMOS Statutes.
9. Any individual or institution wishing to become a member of ICOMOS shall complete an application form and forward it to the Executive Board for approval. Upon notification from the Executive Board of acceptance of his, her or its application, he, she or it shall pay membership dues, the annual amount of which shall be set in accordance with Article 12 below.

In exchange for payment of dues, each member shall receive and ICOMOS membership card, ICOMOS periodical publications and such other advantages as the Executive Committee of ICOMOS shall from time to time decide.

Each ICOMOS member shall be bound to comply with the ICOMOS Ethical Commitment Statement and the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice from time to time adopted by the Society.

10. A member of ICOMOS shall cease to be a member:
- a. If he, she or it should resign at the end of a calendar year, after having given the Society written notice to that effect three months in advance, and after having paid his, hers or its dues for the current year.
 - b. If he, she or it can be formally struck off the register by the General Assembly or Executive Committee of ICOMOS, or by resolution of the Executive Board of the Society, for failure to comply with the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice, for non-payment of dues or for any other valid cause.

5. Finances

11. The income of the Society shall derive from:
- membership dues
 - gifts and bequests
 - grants and loans
 - other sources of income approved by the Executive Board of the Society.
12. The rate of membership dues for each category of members shall be set from time to time by the Executive Board of the Society, and shall be sufficient to provide for the amount of subscription payable to ICOMOS under clause 15 of these Rules, as well as for the other general requirements of the Society.
13. The Treasurer shall receive and administer the funds of the Society and keep appropriate accounts in respect of all monies received or expended by the Society. The Treasurer will also prepare and annual statement of accounts for presentation to the Society's Annual General Meeting.
- The accounts of the Society shall be audited annually by an auditor, or subject to review by an independent accountant, to be appointed at the Annual General Meeting.
14. The Society shall only have the power to borrow money or otherwise pledge or charge the assets of the Society by resolution of the Executive Board.
- 14.1 Payments to members.
No member of the organisation or any person associated with a member shall participate in or materially influence any decision made by the organisation in respect of the payment to or on behalf of that member or associated person of any income, benefit or advantage whatsoever.
- Any such income paid shall be reasonable and relative to that which would be paid in an arm's length transaction (being the open market value). The provisions and effect of this clause shall not be removed from this document and shall be included and implied into any document replacing this document.
15. The Society shall transfer to the ICOMOS Secretariat in Paris, no later than 1st of May each year, the total amount of subscriptions due by its members to ICOMOS under Article 6 (e) of the ICOMOS Statutes.

6. Administrative Structure

16. The administrative structure of the Society shall comprise:
- a. An Annual General Meeting
 - b. An Executive Board
 - c. A Chairperson
 - d. A Vice-Chairperson
 - e. A Secretary
 - f. A Treasurer.
17. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall consist of the members of the Society, Individual, Institutional, Honorary and Affiliates. It shall adopt its own rules of procedure. It shall elect the Chairperson of the Society and the members of the Society and the members of the Executive Board, approve the annual report and the accounts of the Society, set the rate of membership dues, assign the right to vote at ICOMOS General Assembly, within the numerical limits laid down in Article 6 (b) of the ICOMOS Statutes, propose candidates for Honorary Membership of ICOMOS, ratify decisions of the Executive Board and see to the execution of the Society's programme.
18. The quorum at the Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be 10% of the members present or represented by proxy. Should this quorum not be reached, the assembly shall be convened again, at the same place, 24 hours later; its decisions shall be valid whatever the number of members present.

The proxy at Annual General Meetings and at Board Meetings must be in written form and be in the hands of the Secretary before the commencement of the meeting. No member shall hold more than five proxies.

19. The Annual General Meeting shall be convened not later than 31 October in each year. The Secretary shall notify all members of the Society of the time and place of the meeting by letter sent no less than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting. All members shall be entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting and to vote and to stand for office thereat.

The Annual General Meeting shall not be convened in the same region in two consecutive years.

Institutional members shall designate a duly qualified individual to represent them at the Society's Annual General Meeting and vote thereat.

The Chairperson shall present to the meeting an annual report to members on the Society's activities, and the Treasurer shall present the annual audited accounts.

20. The Common Seal of the Society shall be kept by the Secretary, and shall be affixed only by resolution of the Board and in the presence of two members of the Board, one of whom shall be the Chairperson or the Secretary.
21. Between Annual General Meetings the Executive Board shall be empowered to act on the Society's behalf. It shall be responsible for the day to day operations of the Society, for the preparation and execution of the Society's programme of activities, for the collection and transfer to ICOMOS of membership dues, for the recruitment of members and otherwise for promoting and achieving the aims and objects of the Society.
22. The Executive Board shall consist of not more than 18 members elected from among the individual and institutional members of the Society at its Annual General Meeting. A majority of the members of the Executive Board shall be individual members. Representatives of institutional members shall have been duly designated by relevant bodies. The Chairperson of the Society shall be an ex-officio member of the Executive Board, and Chairperson of the Board.

The Executive Board shall meet four times a year.

23. a. Nominations for Chairperson and the 18 other members of the Executive Board shall be called for by the Secretary by circular posted to all members at least 6 weeks before the Annual general Meeting.
- b. Nominations in writing for any of the above offices must be in the hands of the Secretary at least four weeks before the Annual General Meeting.
- c. Each nomination must be signed by the proposer and seconder both of whom must be members of the Society. Persons nominated for office shall consent to serve.
- d. The Chairperson and members of the Executive Board shall be elected by a secret postal ballot conducted as hereinafter set out.
- e. The Secretary shall send to each member, at least three weeks before the Annual General Meeting a voting paper containing the names of the candidates for election and such a voting paper shall be returned to the Secretary by post before the Annual General Meeting.
- f. Each voter shall strike from the voting paper the name of any candidate against whom he, she or it desires to vote and shall leave uncanceled the name of any candidate for whom he, she or it desires to vote.
- g. Each voting paper shall be posted to the Secretary by the voter in a sealed envelope marked "Voting Paper" on the outside and the voter shall sign his/her name within the flap of the envelope but not on the voting paper.
- h. The Secretary shall retain all the voting papers in their envelopes unopened and shall deliver the same to the Chairperson at the Annual General Meeting.
- i. The votes shall be opened, counted and scrutinised by two scrutineers nominated by the Annual General Meeting for the above purpose, and the result of the ballot shall be announced by the Chairperson at the conclusion of the meeting.
- j. In the event of an insufficient number of nominations being received for the position of Chairperson and/or Executive Board as herein before provided, those nominated shall be declared elected and floor nominations called for the remaining positions. If the number of persons nominated from the floor exceeds the number of vacant positions, an election shall be held. The proposer and seconder of any such nomination must be a member or a delegate for an Institutional Member.
- k. Every candidate for election shall be invited to send in with his, her nomination paper the following information:
1. Name
 2. Occupation
 3. Residential address
 4. Posts held.

The Chairperson and members of the Board shall hold office until their successors are elected at the next Annual General Meeting. Should the position of Chairperson, or a seat on the Executive Board fall vacant prior to the next Annual general Meeting, the Executive Board shall in the case of the Chairperson, and may in the case of a member of the Board, elect a successor from among the members of the Society for the balance of the term of office of the previous occupant.

24. The decisions of the Executive Board shall be taken by a majority vote of members present or represented by proxy. Members of the Executive Board may give their proxies to any other member of the Executive Board but these proxies shall not count in the calculation of a quorum.
